Join us today!

Together we can:

-  offer life-changing experiences in nature to almost 11,000 school children annually
-  preserve and protect 2,700 acres of open space crucial to the well-being of wildlife and people
-  provide a vital community resource for learning and inspiration
-  care for and release hundreds of injured and orphaned birds annually
-  provide training and guidance to interns and volunteers
-  contribute to local and national research projects through bird banding and monitoring

“Friends” Membership gives you:

-  free general admission to the Sharon Audubon Center
-  a free subscription to the Otter and the Hawk, our quarterly newsletter
-  discounts on certain classes and workshops
-  use of the Sharon Audubon Center’s nature Library
-  use of the Sharon Audubon Center’s trails dawn to dusk, 365 days a year
-  10% discount on purchases in our Nature Store
-  the satisfaction of knowing that you are helping to make a difference
